

syracuse.com

Call for volunteers: Literacy parade, Harborfest, OHA museum

Published: Wednesday, May 25, 2011, 5:53 AM Updated: Wednesday, May 25, 2011, 11:19 AM

Here are some local agencies who could use a helping hand:

LIGHT A CANDLE FOR LITERACY PARADE

Assist with registration, hand out food and help guide attendees through vendor booths.

When: 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. June 4.

Where: Danforth Middle School, 309 W. Brighton Ave., Syracuse.

Contact: Robyn Smith or Betsy Lang, 471-1300 or rsmith@lvgs.org or office@lvgs.org

HARBORFEST

Volunteer opportunities include park manager, raffle ticket seller, floater, clean team, hospitality, memorabilia seller/cashier, parking attendant, park crew, trolley host/helper, information center and T-shirt workshop.

When: 4-hour shifts available from 9 a.m. to midnight, July 28 - 31.

Where: Office: McCrobie Building, 41 Lake St., Oswego. Venues are spread out along the waterfront.

Contact: Michael Petrilli, mpetrilli@oswego-harborfest.com 343-6858 or 342-7113. See oswego-harborfest.com for more information or to download an application.

OHA MUSEUM SHOP

The Onondaga Historical Association is looking for individuals to greet patrons, answer questions and run point of sale systems at its downtown museum retail shop.

When: Ongoing; opening July 13.

Where: 321 Montgomery St., Syracuse.

Contact: Matthew MacVittie, 428-1864 ext. 324 or matthew.macvittie@cnyhistory.org

United Way's Volunteer Center serves as a clearinghouse for local organizations. Visit the website to find an opportunity.

© 2011 syracuse.com. All rights reserved.